ATLANTA, GA.

To Students . . .

ATLANTA UNIVERSITY offers an education in Collegiate and Normal Courses, together with industrial training in Carpentry, Blacksmithing, Printing, Cooking, Sewing, Dressmaking and Nursing, at a total cost of from $92 to $96 a year for each student, including furnished room and board for eight months.

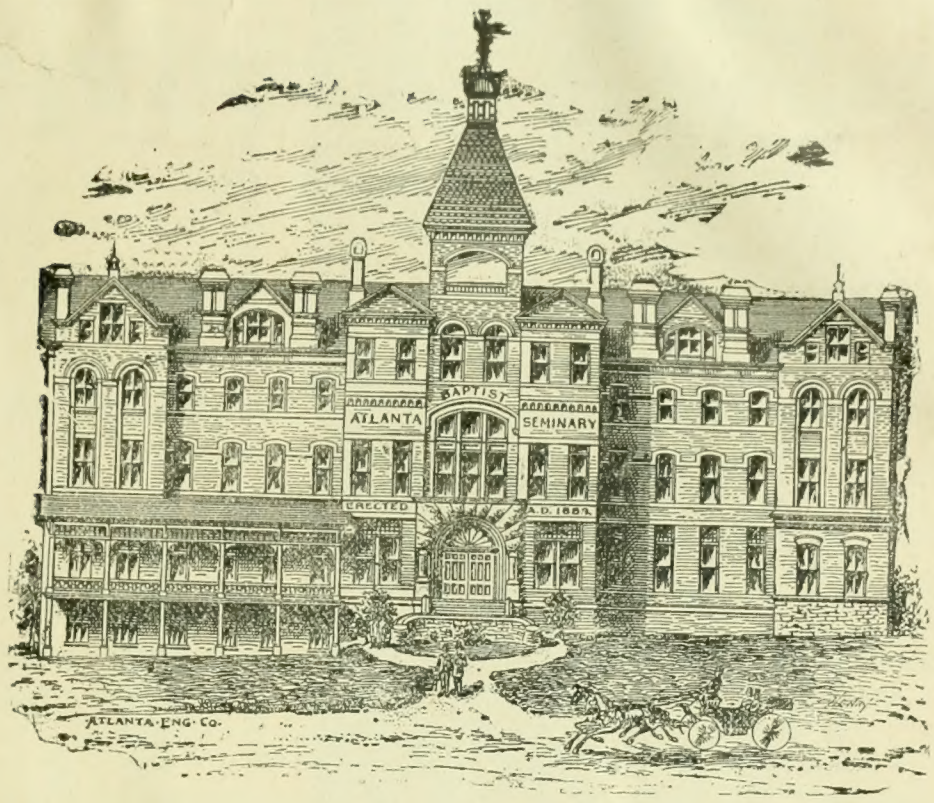

To Capitalists . . .

The education which Atlanta University gives to the needy people of the South renders your investments in this region more secure, increases the demand for the merchandise which you desire to sell, and renders more intelligent and efficient the labor that you employ. An endowment of at least $500,000 is needed to put the institution on a secure and permanent basis.

The Shannen Dry Air Refrigerator

Serviceable; always dry, a principle obtained only by years of study and experiment.

Has no faults, as hundreds of my customers will testify.

Always ready for use; no leaking or dripping from ice in storage room to cause delay and loss.

Never gets out of order, and will last a life time.

No sweating, musty or foul odors, but always sweet, cold and dry.

ECONOMY

It uses less ice than any other refrigerator made, an item worthy of consideration.

Never trust to inexperience, unless you have money to burn. I have years of experience and can guarantee satisfaction.

PREFACE.

In presenting this, the twenty-second volume of the Atlanta City Directory, the publishers have continued their endeavor to present each year a more complete and accurate record of the city of Atlanta, her growth, her business, and her institutions, her inhabitants and their employments. After more than usual care in eliminating floaters and persons not identified with the city and therefore not entitled to representation in such a work, the 1898 Directory contains 35,393 names, representing a population in the city and immediately surrounding suburbs of 120,338. In common with all directory experience great difficulty is found with the varied ways in which proper names are spelled, each being a law unto himself.

We instruct our canvassers to inquire of each person how his name should be spelled, but in spite of the utmost care inaccuracies will occur through the similarity of the sound of different letters; this is especially so when initials only are given; hence our desire to secure full names.

The Business Directory, a feature of all Atlanta City Directories for years past, contains classified lists of all professional and business men and firms, dealers in various commodities and their location. This feature is usually bound and sold as a separate work, but in Atlanta it has been given for good measure with the regular alphabetical list of names.

In the miscellaneous department will be found information concerning courts, schools, county and municipal institutions, public and private, of all sorts of use and interest to the stranger and the citizen alike.

V. V. BULLOCK, Manager.
